Introduction

The Spouse Education and Career Opportunities program provides expert education and career guidance to military spouses worldwide and offers comprehensive information, tools and resources to support career exploration, education, training and licensing, employment readiness and career connections. This catalog spotlights the SECO education and outreach materials currently available to military spouses and service providers who may support spouses in achieving their education and career goals.

Catalog benefits

- Learn about the SECO program and services such as the Military OneSource SECO Career Center, the Military Spouse Employment Partnership and the My Career Advancement Account Scholarship and connecting with installation employment readiness programs.
- Find out how certified SECO Career Counselors can assist military spouses in identifying aptitudes and interests, exploring education options and identifying licensing or credentialing options. Also, learn about how they can connect spouses with corporations, government organizations and nonprofits, and prepare them to join or reenter the workforce.
- Discover how to access the MySECO website, create a profile, develop a MyICP, or individual career plan, and explore the more than 200 articles, tools and resources that support education and career goals.
- Learn about the basics of the MyCAA Scholarship and the eligibility requirements, what MyCAA will and will not pay for and how to start the process of setting up a MyCAA Account.
- Learn about the Military Spouse Employment Partnership and its assistance to partner employers looking to hire, recruit, retain and promote military spouses in portable career fields.
- Find out about the Spouse Ambassador Network and its support in the job search process, career development efforts and expanding spouse networks, especially in communities where military spouses live and work.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the SECO Outreach Catalog?

- The catalog lists all the SECO outreach and education materials and provides summary information on each product so users can quickly find and download the materials they need.

How do you download the different materials?

- The products within the catalog are linked to PDF files stored on the MySECO website. Click on the product URL and the product PDF will open in a Web browser. You can then save or print the product.

How can I provide feedback on the SECO products?

- We take your feedback very seriously to ensure we are providing the best services possible. You can provide feedback when talking to a SECO Career Counselor at 800-342-9647 or online in the following ways:
  - Click on the ‘Feedback’ button located at the bottom of each page of the catalog
  - Click on the ‘Feedback’ button located on the side of each Web page of MySECO
- We also encourage users to comment on the SECO program and provide suggestions using the ‘SECO Satisfaction’ tool on the MySECO website, also found on the side of each Web page.

How can I contact a certified SECO Career Counselor?

- Certified SECO Career Counselors are available by calling 800-342-9647, Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. until 10 p.m. EST and Saturday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

How can I contact the closest installation employment readiness service provider?

- The installation employment readiness staffs are part of the Family Readiness System with offices at installations. To find the Spouse Education, Training and Careers office at your installation, visit MilitaryINSTALLATIONS.

What are the differences among MySECO, My Career Advancement Account Scholarship, Military Spouse Employment Partnership Career Portal and Military OneSource websites?

- All four sites provide information and resources to support military spouses as they pursue their education and career goals. The difference is in the additional audiences that each site can support and how it addresses the needs of each audience.
